

CHINESE AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTE

FOUNDED BY: BAO LEI

Overview

The Chinese American Higher Education Institute is a not-for-profit organization that is dedicated to establishing a high-quality and interactive content-sharing web community for students who are interested in studying abroad. The organization provides overseas education consulting and obtains support from various authorized organizations such as the Consulate General of the People's Republic of China in New York. This institution commits to creating a social and informative platform that allows prospective students, current students, parents, and professionals to acquire comprehensive, updated, authentic, and reliable information for free utilization.

Background

Bao Lei is a UB alumna and founder of the Chinese American Higher Education Institute. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Management in 2014. In 2016, she obtained her MBA here at the University of Bridgeport.